

The function of the USS Human Rights Committee is to protect the due process rights of people receiving supports and services. The Human Rights Committee reviews the following:

- individual rights restrictions (money management, freedom of movement, privacy) - assure that any plan that restricts rights includes a plan for restoring those rights and that all rights restrictions are time-limited.
- restrictive behavior support plans
- allegations and the review of investigations of abuse, neglect and exploitation
- any use of psychotropic medication
- issues of informed consent

All USS Members are welcome and encouraged to be present at the Human Rights Committee Meeting and have the opportunity to share their wishes.
